"Not only is Claudia one of Chicago's most respected cabaret artists, but also a former librarian—who understands the library world, our audience, and truly cares about our work.," says Jennifer Black, Director of Public Information Glenview Public Library.

So it's not surprising that several Chicagoland librarians recommended her to the LACONI Northern Illinois "Best of the Best" list. From Addison to Wilmette and points in between, librarians agree—

"Well, damn! Thank you for a fabulous concert/cabaret last Thursday. The audience just loved the program. It was hugely entertaining and completely relevant to the Big Read book. I couldn't have been happier with the program!"
